First Township May Secede From San Mateo County

Secession of First Township, which includes Daly City and both incorporated and unincorporated Colma, from San Mateo county, leading to its ultimate consolidation with San Francisco county may become a reality in the not too far distant future, if plans of an organized group now seeking such action materialize.

Although leaders of the movement prefer to remain anonymous at present, such plans have gone beyond the talking stage, and are now shaping toward definite action, it was reliably learned this week.

Behind the secession movement is a growing resentment of north county civic leaders and residents over what they term "neglect" of county officials.

Three instances of this purported neglect are: (1). Failure of county officials to take decisive action against Colma hog ranchers, who are allegedly polluting streams in that section; (2). Alleged lack of speedy ambulance service in the northern part of the county; and (3). Purported failure of county authorities to allot the northern part of the county its fair share of road improvement.

First Township includes besides Daly City and Colma, the incorporated communities of South San Francisco, San Bruno, Lomita Park and Rockaway Beach and the unincorporated towns of Bayshore City and Brisbane in addition to a small part of the city of Millbrae including 110 voters of that city. The suburban residential areas such as Baden, Lindenville and Southwood are also included in the township.

Authorize $45,000 Expenditure For Street Car Rails

Action of the Public Utilities Commission of San Francisco Monday, in authorizing an expenditure of $45,000 for the purchase of new street car rails to replace existing trackage on Mission street between Eighth and Fifteenth streets will be hailed with joy by local "commuters" who have been jarred and jolted over these tracks twice a day for the past several months.

This will be the first step in a major improvement program for Mission street, members of the commission said. A contract for repaving of the street will be let later, Utilities Manager Cahill said this week.

The commission also took steps to reduce accidents on the street railway system by voting to create a Bureau of Accident Prevention and Employee Training, and providing $500 a month for the employ of a chief for this bureau.

In recent months, settlement of accident claims and suits has run as high as $70,000 a month. Harry E. Cooley, who previously handled the duties of the proposed bureau was recently promoted via civil service to assistant superintendent of the Municipal Railway.

Frank's Union "76" Juniors Win Another

Jubilant over defeating the Eager Beavers last Wednesday, 7 to 6, for their eighth victory of the season, members of the junior baseball team sponsored by Frank Rehe, proprietor of Frank's Union "76" Super Service Stations, gathered in front of Station Number 1 at Mission and Flournoy and had their pictures taken.

The tall, handsome guy with the white cap in the rear isn't a player, fellows—he's Frank "Pop" Rehe himself.

San Mateo County Grand Jury Appoints Nine Committees To Delve Into Alleged Laxity of Law Enforcement

The San Mateo county grand jury recently impanelled by Judge A. R. Cotton is starting out like it really means business.

At the first organizational meeting, Thursday night, July 12, nine committees were appointed by Foreman Glenn O. Smallcomb to delve into past, present, and proposed future activities of every public county office from county executive and board of supervisors on down.

Gambling activities in the county, which brought about the jury's impanelment will be thoroughly investigated, as well as what has been done about them by county and city law enforcement agencies.

Also a startling increase in traffice fatalities in the county will be thoroughly probed, Smallcomb said. Along that line, the jury will determine whether alleged indiscriminate sale of liquor, much of it to minors, has had anything to do with this wholesale increase of auto accidents.

Most important of the nine committees appointed last week is the six member committee which will investigate gambling conditions in the county, both present and at a time just prior to the impanelling of the jury, and what effort to curb it had been made by the district attorney and county judges.

But working hand in hand with this committee will be another one, investigating what has been done by the county sheriff's office and local police departments in law enforcement. This committee known as the criminal and judicial committee may call Sheriff James J. McGrath and all chiefs of local police departments in the county before it in the near future, it was indicated.

In order that a thorough investigation of law enforcement activities in the county may be made, the grand jury may petition the county board of supervisors for funds for a special investigator.

A public officials committee will delve into the records of 15 county offices including county clerk, recorder, coroner, controller, treasurer, auditor, assessor, tax collector, purchasing department, real estate, weights and measures, county executive, board of supervisors, public administrator, and civil service commission.

A public health, welfare and safety committee will investigate the county engineering department, traffic safety commission, relief home, Community hospital and county forestry service.

Butcher Suffers Severely Cut Finger

While slicing meat shortly after 9 o'clock Monday morning of this week, Wally Sharp, 461 Knowles avenue, a butcher at Milo's Market, almost severed the index finger of his left hand.

Officer Dean Wood of the local police department rushed him to Alemany hospital, where four stitches were taken in the finger. Sharp then returned to his job.

Cowgill Appoints Gordon Price To Probation Office

Gordon L. Price, 26, was last week appointed assistant probation officer of San Mateo county by Chief Probation Officer John S. Cowgill.

Price, an ex-marine, is a graduate of the University of Washington School of Social Service, and did a year of graduate work in psychiatry. He has been employed by King County (Wash.) Welfare department, the Seattle Welfare department, and at Pinehaven, the City of San Francisco child service center.

Price will take over the southern part of the county, with Assistant Anthony Lovoi confining his work to the northern section, Cowgill said.

Memorial Park Is Now Open For Camping Parties

San Mateo County's Memorial park located six miles from La Honda, on the La Honda-Pescadero road, is now open to the public for camping, picnicking and swimming, County Recreation Director Ralph H. Shaw announced last week.

Camping is limited to two weeks at 25 cents per night for residents of the county, and 50 cents a night for people from outside the county. Firewood may be purchased from H. H. Blomquist at the park, and a pay telephone is available, Shaw said.

Other facilities at the park include picnic tables, outdoor fireplaces and a swimming area. The park is situated in a natural redwood grove.

Would Double Original $75,000 Allocated by Planning Commission For Daly City's Memorial Building Fund

By Harold P. Bradshaw

Always at the forefront of every worthwhile local civic endeavor, members of the Daly City Fire department have again stepped forward in a matter that deserves the attention of every progressive minded resident of the city—the matter of immediately going to work towards securing a War Memorial building for this city that can be used for future city-wide meetings, conventions, dances etc.

The fire laddies feel that Daly Citians are at present too apathetic to the worth and need of such a memorial, and are anxious to see the "ball started rolling" towards securing it immediately—not in some dim distant future.

At the same time they feel the $75,000 allocated this city by the San Mateo County Planning commission is not enough for a building that will meet future needs of our rapidly growing community, and propose that another $75,000 be raised locally to be added to that amount.

In a letter to every organization in the city, the fire department boys are asking that each and every organization appoint a committee of two to meet with them Wednesday evening, August 29 at the City hall. A copy of this letter is carried below.

The firemen ask that each committee attending the meeting ascertain as far as possible, the will of the majority of its individual membership concerning such a memorial, and various details in-

Extortionists Are Held To Answer By Superior Court

Marius F. Peterson and Norman C. Mensoian, Redwood City navy men were held to answer to charges of attempted extortion, in Superior Court, after a preliminary hearing in San Mateo Friday afternoon, July 13. Bail was set at $10,000 cash and $20,000 bond, by Police Judge Francis W. Murphy.

Counts of extortion against Peterson were dismissed upon request of defense attorneys. District Attorney Gilbert D. Ferrell of San Mateo county represented the state.

The two sailors were arrested last week just as they allegedly received the first $1000 payment of a requested $4000 "hush money" payment from Emerson Murfee, co-owner of a San Mateo restaurant.

The sailors threatened to notify the OPA they were overcharged for liquor at the restaurant unless he "came through," Murfee charged.

Navy Reopens Aviation Training To Civilian Youths

Naval aviation training leading to a commission as a Naval officer has been reopened to civilian youths of 17, it was announced recently by the Office of Naval Officer Procurement in San Francisco.

Applicants must be 17 years of age and they must be high schoool graduates or be graduated not later than October 1, 1945. Those who meet all requirements and are enlisted will begin their training approximately November 1. Training encompasses a year of college in a Navy V-12 unit, after which the enlistee undergoes flight training for approximately 13 months. Successful completion of the training means a commission as Ensign in the Naval Reserve and designation as Naval Aviator.

Although applicants must come to San Francisco, 703 Market street, to be enlisted, further information is available at the nearest Navy Recruiting station.

Four bottles of a popular brand of whiskey, of the fifths size, prominently displayed in the window of the Midtown Liquor Store, 7144 Mission street, proved too attractive to an unknown party or parties early Monday morning of this week, for said party or parties to resist.

Summoned to the place at 1:20 a. m. by a phone call from Julius Lazzarini, Officers Roland Petrocchi and August Benassini found one of the show windows broken. Owner Ray Lagomarsino summoned by phone checked up his stock and found the four bottles of the amber fluid missing.

The officers could find no finger prints or evidence showing who could have been the guilty culprit.

Less than an hour previous, two other local officers, George Hopman and Roy Beecher had answered a call from the 101 Club at 7332 Mission street and found the bartender in ejecting an unruly patron had been bitten on the thumb of the left hand. The "biter" wasn't around when the officers arrived.

Final Returns In War Loan Drive Show San Mateo County "Over the Top"

San Mateo county went far over its quota in the big Seventh War Loan drive which closed Saturday, July 7, according to a report received this week by Walter J. Lehigh, chairman of the War Finance committee in Daly City from Merriel E. Cooley, San Mateo county executive vice-chairman.

While most counties of the state failed to meet their quota in "E" bond sales, San Mateo county workers exceeded this county's quota by two tenths per cent, Cooley said.

War bond sales in the county and percentages of quotas made in various types of sales follow:

Classification	Amount	Ptc. Quota
Series E	$ 4,729,544	100.2
Other individual	3,556,458	139.7
Total individual	8,286,002	114.
Corporations	6,683,558	296.7
Grand Total	14,969,557	157.3

In his report, Cooley asked that Lehigh convey his sincere thanks and appreciation to local workers for their part in achieving the county's splendid record, particularly in their sales of "E" bonds.

Timing

It may be more than mere coincidence that one of the most audicious maneuvers ever executed by our Pacific Fleet—that of sending Admiral Halsey's task force right up to Toyko's front door—should have come just at the time when President Truman was preparing for his meeting with Churchill and Stalin.

It will be remembered that on that occasion Fleet Admiral Nimitz broke all precedent by announcing the names of the ships engaged in the attack. Obviously, this was done to emphasize the virtually unchallenged supremacy we enjoy in the Pacific and even in the waters just off the coast of Japan.

This attack, which sent 1,000 American planes from aircraft carriers in repeated smashes against the airfields around Tokyo, had as its military purpose the further weakening of Japanese ability to resist an eventual invasion. But the attack also had a political or psychological purpose—that of impressing Marshal Stalin with the fact that the war in the Pacific is being won by ourselves and the British even though Russia, as yet, has taken no active part in it.

This means that when the subject of Russian participation in the Pacific struggle comes up at the Big Three meeting Marshal Stalin will hardly be in a position to ask special concessions as a price for joining in the fight against Nippon. In fact, if he is to have a strong voice in future Pacific affairs he may find it necessary to bid his way into the fight rather than receive bids to join in.

Thus it would appear that the strike against Tokyo included political as well as military timing.

"Permanent" Tires

"It is no trade secret that we ultimately expect to produce a tire that will run 100,000 miles," declared John W. Thomas, head of a major rubber company. Mr. Thomas also revealed that a tire is now being developed that will not puncture, blow out, or skid.

His statement substantiates the long time rumor about the super-duper tires that are to come. It may be quite some time yet, however, before they are perfected and produced in large numbers.

If this type of "permanent" tire can be successfully built and used for buses and trucks it will be of tremendous added value to the Nation as a whole. Motorized transportation has now been so widely developed that almost everything we eat, wear and use is moved at one stage or another by motor carriers. One of the biggest problems of these carriers is their tires. Long lasting rubber would do much to make highway transportation even more inexpensive and faster than it is now.

Whether tomorrow's 100,000 mile, non-skid, non-puncture, non-blowout tire will be made of natural or synthetic rubber has not been revealed. But that is of little importance to the motorist. It isn't what goes into the tire, but rather what he gets out of it that counts with him.

Blue Camel

We've heard of pink elephants which have been seen only by those who were sufficiently "oiled," and we've heard of the famous purple cow which the poet hoped never to see. But now comes a new one and, incidentally, a real one—a blue camel.

The zoological rarity was born recently at San Francisco's Fleishhacker Zoo and since then it has had the learned zoologists of that area in quite a dither trying to explain.

When interviewed by the press, however, both the mother camel and her blue offspring didn't seem to give a hoot about the fancy "coat" the youngster was sporting, or about the excitement it was causing.

In fact, both of them refused to talk.

Irish Plot

Forty members of the outlawed Irish Republican army were hardly out of jail when they were re-arrested for conspiracy to overthrow the De Valera government by force. Sean McCool, head of the outlaw army, was taken into custody just two days after his release. When the European war broke out some 400 members of the IRA were interned when it was feared that they might endanger Eire's neutrality by helping Germany against Britain. When hostilities ended they were released. Whether or not the other 360 members of the IRA were involved in the recent conspiracy against De Valera has not been made clear. A few months ago the Irish Premier won a vote of confidence from the people in the election of the new parliament. Criticism of him has been severe, however, both here and in England for his refusal to allow the Allies to use Irish ports for ship convoys during the desperate days of the war. He was given another verbal lashing when he expressed condolences to the German minister to Ireland over the death of Hitler.

Soviet People Send Their Thanks For Russian War Relief

Letters of thanks received recently in many parts of this country by American donors of gifts to the Soviet people through Russian War Relief express more than usual gratitude and assure us that there is full knowledge by "all" the Russians of the "tremendous help which the American people is rendering our people . . . " There are included many requests from Soviet men and women that the personal ties of friendship formed so fortuitously in war be continued. "Please send your photograph," writes a Red Army woman; "Drop us a line," requests a family of orphans.

J. Borushok of Lackawana County, Pa., received a short note from the new "head" of a family of adopted war orphans, Vladimir Zastovnomy of Moscow, who writes, "Permit me to give you my warmest regards and wish you the best of health and fortune in your life.

"We don't know who you are or where you're from but we are very anxious from the bottom of our hearts to thank you for your gift of a 'Family Emergency Kit.'

"You can't imagine how much happiness this brought us. Thank you a thousand times, thank you. Pray God you should always be fortunate and never experience this horrible bloody war.

"We are a family of orphans and this gift of a kit proves once more your concern and consciousness of our welfare. Thank you again.

"We wish you would drop us a line to the following address: Moscow Saratovaskei 5 Street, House No. 1"

Mrs. Antonia Shostak, Ukrainian member of the Church of St. Nicholas in Chicago, received a letter from a former guerrila now in Bryansk.

"Surely you must have forgotten about the note you wrote," the letter begins, "I found it in the coat you sent as a gift to those suffering in the war.

"Dear Mrs. Shostak! I thank you from my heart for your aid. The Nazis killed my mother, two of my sisters and my friends and relatives. They brought grief, tears, suffering and violence. . .

"We all know of the tremendous help which the American people is rendering our people. History will not forget this . . .

"Again please accept my sincere gratitude," and it is signed," S. Sherman."

The United Committee of Aid to the Motherland in Camden, N. J., received a letter from a Red Army woman residing at Typoli Stan, the Moscow Region, which opens starkly, "Military greetings, dear comrades, from Red Army Woman Maria Fedorovna Zabegalova."

Maria Zabegalova then expresses thanks for the gifts which were delivered to her on the 27th anniversary of the Red Army. "Having lain in the hospital for three months, my spirits were raised so much (by your gifts) that I quickly forgot all my aches and pains, all my unhappiness.

"As to these gifts, dear friends, I must tell you that they will be a momento of our splendid friendship, since your people and ours will remain eternal friends. And we must be proud of that friendship, because our lives still lie ahead of us. After the exile and annihilation of accursed fascism, our life will be beautiful and happy, and we, the youth, will be gay and sturdy. We all have the right to that much.

"I have already served for three years in the Red Army, and during this time have mastered many specialities.

"At present my life is centered on getting well as quickly as possible. Please send your photograph, and then, if you are interested, I can send you mine as soon as I leave the hospital. Keep well. Greetings from our girls. So long, with fraternal greetings," signed "Maria Fedorovna Zabegalova."

OPA Lifts Controls On Snap Beans

Price control on snap beans has been suspended for July, August and September, 1945, the Office of Price Administration announced today.

This action is being taken, the agency said, because through inadvertence growers were not given the full 15 days notice before planting time that a ceiling would be established on that commodity, as required by the Stabilization Extension Act of 1944.

The action affects all shippers and distributors, including retailers.

How to Iron Cottons

When ironing cotton materials be careful not to have the iron too hot. Though a scorch may not show, an iron too hot can damage the fibers. If your iron has a heat control, watch it carefully. If not, test the heat of the iron by running over a test cloth, placed near by.

Pacific Tel.&Tel. Co. Plans $85,000 Gift To The War Fund

On behalf of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company and its subsidiaries—Southern California Telephone company and Bell Telephone company of Nevada—N. R. Powley, president announced recently:

Our directors have approved a contribution of $85,000 to the National War Fund, Inc. Although the campaign is not yet officially in progress, we felt that it would be helpful to the fund to record now our contribution.

Inclusive of our forthcoming contribution to the Community Chests, approximating $50,000 annually, our payments in 1945 to the National War Fund will aggregate the sum of $135,000. Our contribution to the National War Fund will be allocated consistent with the War Fund quotas applicable to the territory served by our companies. The Community Chest contributions will be made to the specific communities as our companies have done in the past and the amounts so contributed will be made whether or not the Community Chest budgets are included in the War Chests of various communities.

News Notes Of Troop No. 141

Scoutmaster Joseph Straughan of Boy Scout Troop No. 141 informed the boys he would name any project, considered of the most importance, after the boy suggesting it. Frank Van Dusen suggested a supply road be constructed to Camp Boy Joy. This project was considered the most important and is now almost complete, therefore, it will be named the Frank Van Dusen road in his honor.

The road starts about 300 yards north of the camp, follows a gradual course downhill and enters the camp at the north east corner. Scout Donald Heissenbuttel and Cubs Frank Van Dusen, Ralph Wallace and Ronald Le Brun are the boys who did most of the work on the road.

It is planned to construct a concrete collector reservoir with a capacity of about 500 gallons near the spring which is across the road from the camp site buildings and lay pipes under the road to connect with a wooden auxiliary reservior which is to be erected near the buildings.

The wooden tank was donated about three years ago by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Conti, 28 Knowles avenue. Concrete for the other reservoir is being donated by the Pacific Coast Aggregates, Inc.

A ten foot row boat has been secured and the boys are now reconditioning it.

Teen-Agers Find Juke Box Needle

What good is a juke box without a needle? No good was the answer given when teen-agers arrived last Friday evening at the center to enjoy their usual evening of dancing, but instead found a juke box without a needle; consequently no music.

The mystery has been solved and all "patrons" of the center are invited to attend this Friday evening, July 20 for the usual good time. (This will kill the rumor that the center has been closed.)

Now that takes care of the juke box, but the management of the center is still pleading for chesterfield cushions. Any "good samaritan" willing to donate them may call DElaware 5376.

Manslaughter To Be Prosecuted In S. M. County, Says D. A.

San Mateo county district attorney's office will continue to prosecute manslaughter charges brought against motorists in fatal accidents in the county, Deputy District Attorney Fred Wyckoff said last week, and will pay no attention to the recent ruling of San Francisco Judge Edward P. Murphy that there is no legal basis for such prosecutions now. Deputy Wyckoff said Murphy's ruling was in direct contradiction of one made recently by a Fresno judge, who ruled such prosecutions could still be made under provision of the penal code.

At its recent session the state legislature corrected an oversight of several years standing by passing a new law which provides for manslaughter charges in fatal accidents. However, this new law will not become effective until September of this year.

Three manslaughter cases are now pending in county courts all because of accidents on the Bayshore Highway near Brisbane.

Harold A. LeFever, 26 year old submarine veteran is slated to be tried August 14 as result of an accident on August 27, 1944 in which five persons were either killed or received fatal injuries; Lawrence F. Moody, 28 year old San Francisco truck driver is slated for trial August 28 for an accident January 15 in which three persons were killed. Frank A. Cavallero of San Francisco also faces manslaughter charges as a result of a motorcycle-truck crash which killed State Highyay Patrolman James B. Dalziel June 30.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Aboard the USS San Francisco (delayed)—Robert D. Clark, 24, chief watertender, USN, of 393 Bellevue avenue, Daly City, brother of Mrs. Pearl Caine, 393 Bellevue avenue served aboard this cruiser during nearly every major operation in the Pacific, including the bombardment and invasion of Okinawa.

Disproving the Jap claim that the ship had been destroyed at Pearl Harbor, she made her first strikes for vengeance in the battles of Bougainville and Salamaua.

Seven months later the vessel took part in the battles of Cape Esperance and Savo Island during the capture and defense of Guadalcanal. At Savo Island, the San Francisco fighting against superior forces silenced and disabled an enemy battleship, sank a destroyer and damaged two other enemy ships despite raging fires and flooded decks.

She participated in the action at Wake Island, and bombarded Makin, Taroa, Maloelap and Kwajalein, in the Gilberts.

From the Marshalls the vessel took part in raids on Truk, Yap, Satawan and Woleai in the Carolines and served with carrier forces which helped capture Hollandia in New Guinea and Saipan, Tinian and Guam in the Marianas.

The ship then appeared in support of landings on Mindoro and Luzon and in raids against Tokyo and in the China Sea against Formosa, Hong Kong, Canton, Amoy, Camranh Bay and Saigon.

Through all the numerous attacks against the Japs the ship has been subjected to counter fire and air raids by the enemy, plus the violence of typhoons.

Arriving in Daly City for a 17 day furlough, this week, was Private Wilbur L. Fellows, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fellows, 163 Vista Grande avenue.

He enlisted in July 1944, attended Washington State college, Pullman, Washington for two semesters and then was sent to Camp Roberts for his basic training. At present he is an instructor in the Howitzer cannon division.

At the termination of his furlough he will report back to Camp Roberts.

Private First Class John S. Allen, son of Mrs. Nellie Allen, 167 Peoria street, arrived home Wednesday, July 11 for a 15-day furlough from Fort Bliss, Texas. Previous to his station at Fort Bliss, he had served two years in Alaska. On Monday, July 23 he will leave to report back to Texas.

Private First Class Allen attended Woodrow Wilson school and graduated from Jefferson Union High school.

His sister, Mrs. Laurette Bertelli, resides at 34 Bepler street.

T/5 William M. Dillon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Dillon, 123 Knowles avenue, came home June 17 on a 60-day convalescent furlough from Tacoma, Washington.

He was overseas about one and one half years. In February of this year while repairing a radio in a tank he was caught between a turning turret and a wrecker boom and received a crushed knee.

At the termination of his furlough he will return to Tacoma, Washington.

Dillon is entitled to wear the European theatre of operation ribbon with two combat stars for battles in Northern France and Germany, in which he participated, and the good conduct ribbon.

Camp Hood, Tex., July 18, 1945—After 36 months in the Pacific, Pfc. Ray Huntington of Daly City landed at Camp Hood's redeployment station for training in a chemical mortar battalion. Private Huntington wears two battle stars, the Philippine Liberation ribbon and the Combat Infantryman's badge.

The bride wore a grey outfit with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Witnesses for the couple were Claire Potter, sister-in-law of the groom and John Potter, brother of the groom.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride, 220 Hillside boulevard, at which 30 relatives and friends were present.

The table was beautifully decorated in white and blue. The bride's daughter presented the couple with a huge three tiered cake.

The newlyweds received many beautiful gifts.

Textile Finishes Remain

Textile chemists are creating new fibers and new finishes to go on old fibers. Formerly the starches, clays, soaps and metallic compounds used for surface finishes in muslins, percales, organdies, damasks and cretonnes and also the crispness produced by oils and gums in chintz disappeared after a few washings; but the coming new finishes for these fabrics will remain almost indefinitely.

All-Star Pitching Breaks Win Streak Of S. F. Marine Nine

By Ted Shipley

San Francisco U. S. Marines dropped a 10 to 2 decision to Dick Bartell's Navy All-Stars before between seven and eight thousand fans at Seals' stadium Sunday afternoon, but they were not disgraced.

The All-Stars lineup comprised 23 players, any one of whom would have brought shouts of joy to any Coast League team of today, were they to walk into the dressing room and announce they were ready to play.

There 23 players included five pitchers, Si Johnson, veteran National Leaguer; "Connie" Conant, who has a dozen clubs on his trail for an after-the-war contract; Carl Ray, New York Yankees; Wayne Kistler, New York Giants; Eyrich, former Phillie; and "Smoky Joe" Hatten of Brooklyn and Alameda Coast Guard, who needs no introduction to local fans.

There were as many catchers as pitchers—Eddie Fernandez, veteran Coast Leaguer and Pittsburgh Pirate caught one inning, and was succeeded behind the log by Vallero of Treasure Island; Gibbs, former Yankee, Abbey and Hartje of Brooklyn.

In the field, Bartell used (with one exception) two full teams. Bertellotti, former Sacramento outfielder, played the entire game in left field. Bartell started at short and was succeeded by Bill Rigney, former Oak and New York Giant. Barney Olsen of the Giants started in center field and was replaced by Schulte of the Dodgers. Bob Williams, speedy St. Louis Card opened in right field with Harvey Story, formerly of the Seals spelling him. Ken Keltner of Cleveland opened at third, with Joe Abreu, former Oak, taking over midway. Herb Gorman of Brooklyn and Vic Buccola of the Oaks divided the game at first. Dunham and Cosby, two former minor leaguers split at second.

The Marines were strictly in the ball game until the first half of the sixth, when Ray, who was then on the mound for the All-Stars, hit a towering fly that lit squarely on top of the left field fence and bounced outside for a home run. There was one runner on base at the time. From this time on, the All-Stars gradually drew away from the Marines, who never quit, but were helpless at the plate, as one after another of the All-Star pitchers blazed the ball through the plate for an inning or two, then gave way to another of Bartell's powerful mound staff.

The Marines got away with a one run lead in the first inning, when Bill Norris beat out an infield hit, stole second and went to third as Fernandez threw into center field. Ed Russell hit a high bounder to Dunham at second, that stayed in the air long enough to allow Russell to reach first and Norris to score.

Hits by Bartell, Olsen and Williams scored two runs for the All-Stars in the third aided by bad handling of the ball by the Marines on the latter drive.

Bertelotti's single, Duplinsky's error, a sacrifice and an error by Catcher Wally Kremers permitted the All-Stars to add another in the first half of the fifth.

In the last of the fifth, Leroy Goodale, Marine third baseman beat out an infield hit, advanced to third on two infield outs and scored on Ray's wild pitch.

Then came the sixth—Ray's home run—and the tide of battle swung definitely to the All-Stars, who added two runs in the seventh and two in the eighth.

Meanwhile the All-Stars pitchers had the Marine batters handcuffed at the plate for the remainder of the game. Hatten wound up by striking out five batters in the last two innings.

There's no doubt in any one's mind that the constant pressure on the Marines exerted by their powerful opposition finally wore them down. But, frankly, we'd like to see this game replayed with only proviso. That is, that Bartell be compelled to use only one pitcher, not over two at the most. We think there would be a different story.

Sunday, the All-Stars hurlers knowing they were scheduled to pitch only one or two innings, bore down with everything they had on every pitch. Compelled to work a full game, or five or six innings at least, they would be compelled to save some of that strength.

Then, too, the Marines, already having faced that type of pitching once, would be better prepared a second time.

Y.M.C.A. Planning Postwar Building Program In State

California YMCA's will spend more than $3,700,000 for postwar construction and remodeling to meet changed community needs and demands for more co-educational programs, according to R. L. Rayburn, senior secretary of the national YMCA building bureau.

Construction slated in California is part of a $50,000,000 nationwide "Y" building program, he said, adding that figures for this state will be greatly increased as estimates of other projects are completed.

Tile swimming pools, more club rooms and a large general purpose room, all suitable for co-educational uses, are planned in most future "Y's," Rayburn said.

Dormitories are due for redesigning, according to Rayburn, who pointed out that the "Y's" throughout the country last year had a bed-night occupancy of more than 24,244,000. Better materials and decorative schemes will be used and even dormitory shower rooms restyled. In showers tile will continue to be installed because of its low upkeep and a different color will be employed in each to give these facilities individuality.

About 90 per cent of all new "Y" buildings will have swimming pools, Rayburn said. Most will also feature a large general purpose room for forums, banquets, club sessions, dances and other co-educational functions, and a large number will include a chapel in their plans.

California at present has 82 YMCA's. Membership in the state totals more than 80,300 persons.

Fire Dept. Sees Plenty of Action During Past Week

A half dozen fires, two of them roof fires, a third an exceptionally stubborn grass fire, kept members of the Daly City Fire Department on the run over the weekend. Especially was this true Saturday afternoon, July 14, when the cantankerous grass blaze and the two roof fires broke out in exactly five hours time.

The big Saturday afternoon started when Companies 1, 2 and 4 responded to an alarm from Box 38 at Hillside boulevard and Gambetta street at 12:20 and discovered a grass fire raging in the area between Reservoirs one and three. Fanned by a stiff breeze, the fire spread downhill and for a time threatened the Edgewood Terrace and Abbey tract east of Hillside boulevard and the newly developed Stoneson Bros. tract. After two hours work by the firemen, the obstreperous affair was brought under control.

Hardly had Companies 1 and 4 returned to their firehouses, when a call from Box 45 routed them out again, this time for a run to 130 Templeton avenue, where the roof of the house owned by Mrs. M. Zarich and occupied by the Arroyas family was on fire. Fire was caused by an overheated chimney.

After some 20 to 30 minutes of hard work, firemen, aided by Sergeant Ricco Benedetti and Officer James Welsh of the police department, put out the blaze with only nominal damage to house or furniture.

At 5:20 p. m., Companies 1 and 4 again rolled—this time to 239 Peoria street, summoned by a phone call from Mrs. Willard Jones, occupant of the house. It was another roof fire, and this time the firemen required some 15 to 20 minutes to bring it under control.

Two grass fires Sunday afternoon occupied the attention of Companies 1 and 2, with Company 6 also responding to one—a call from Box 37 at 7:20. This was for a fire in a vacant lot near George's Cafe.

At 2:54 the same afternoon, Companies 1 and 2 extinguished a grass fire in the vacant lot at the point between Hillcrest drive and Vendome avenue, across the street from the Daly City Garage.

Thursday, July 12, at 12:55 p. m., Companies 1 and 2 responding to a call from Box 22 found an old barn on the apartment house property at 139 Vista Grande avenue afire, and succeeded in bringing it under control before it spread to the adjoining apartment house. This building had been condemned and the portion not destroyed by the fire was being razed this week by Donner Realty Co., owner of the property.

A phone call to the police department from an unknown party who said there was a grass fire on Junipero Serra boulevard opposite the end of Hillcrest drive called out departments one and

"AIRPLANES NEED HOUSEKEEPERS TOO"

Every passenger plane at United Air Lines must be spic and span before it takes off on its next flight. To do this job of housekeeping calls for the "woman's touch," for the inside of these planes is just like a home. The rugs and upholstery must be vacuumned and metal and glass work polished.

You start your "housekeeping" job as soon as the planes arrive. Some of the planes are Mainliners, and others are Army transport planes costing half a million dollars. You use the most modern, labor-saving equipment. No drudgery—nothing difficult about the work.

Housewives and other women between the ages of 18 and 45 and not over 150 pounds can qualify for this interesting work. Because United planes arrive at the airport nearly every hour of the day, you will be on shift work.

United Air Lines employee benefits include vacation with pay, insurance benefits, periodic wage review and a retirement plan. A modern cafeteria furnishes meals at cost to employees.

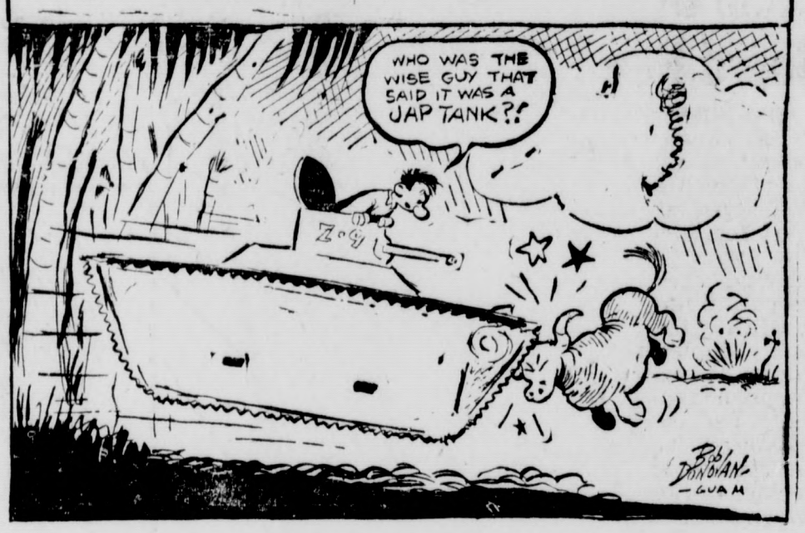
Buffalo Buffaloed by Amphibian Buffalo



GUAM (Delayed)—Amusing incidents of earlier Pacific campaigns still come trickling in. Staff Sergeant Gordon D. Marston, Marine Corps combat correspondent, reports this one:

The crew of an amphibian armored tank, clanking ashore ahead of the assault troops on Guam, heard the order over the radio: "Get that Jap tank over on the left flank."

The Marine tank whirled and rattled on through the smoke, dust and exploding shells. Barely visible was a large, dark, moving object.

The tank crunched onward, closing in for the kill at point-blank range. Suddenly, the enemy tank made a rush to one side. The tanks crashed and the enemy fell.

The "enemy" was a water buffalo which had survived the pre-invasion bombardment, only to fall afoul of its mechanized namesake, the amphibian Buffalo armored tank.

Newman Nine Are Champs In 1st Half Of Summer Play

Although Ted Coffey, ace pitcher of Gordon Realty, held Paul's Fountain to two hits in the noon game at Marchbanks park as his mates battered "Cookie" Pera for 12 hits and a 10 to 0 victory, Frank Newman Furnitures won the first half of the Baseball Managers Summer League race.

Newmans shut out Young Christian Workers 9 to 0 in one of the games at "Big Rec" diamond, big Jim Lowman holding the YCW batters to three hits, while his mates collected 12 off two losing hurlers.

In other league games played Sunday, Federal Outfitters took a 3 to 2, 12 inning decision from Campi's Tavern and Grosso Music won 9 to 5 from Western Pipe and Steel.

Newmans won the first half championship by winning nine out of ten games. Gordons were undefeated on the field of play, but lost two early season games by forfeits, having used ineligible players.

Bob Di Pietro, who played center field for Gordons and left fielder Moran each collected three hits for the Realtors Sunday, with first baseman Kelly and third baseman Elmer Clow securing two each. The veteran Frenchy Bordenave was the only Paul's Fountain player to solve Coffey's pitching, securing the only two safeties made by his team.

The Calvary Meditations programs on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday mornings at 7:45 (KSAN) will be conducted this week by the brother evangelists Charlie and Laurie Taylor and Dr. Louis Julianel of the First Baptist church, during the brief vacation of Rev. Gilbert Bellshaw of the Calvary Baptist church. The pulpit will be filled by visiting pastors.

Artificial Insemination

Big scale artificial insemination, through cooperative groups, was first inaugurated in the United States under the direction of the New Jersey experiment station, with a predominance of registered Holstein-Friesian bulls being used.

Local OPA Board News

OPA ENFORCES RENT CEILINGS: Somewhere in a pilot's cockpit of a B-29 Flying Fortress bound for unrevealed destination is a flyer with gratitude in his heart for OPA. A former bomber pilot with months of overseas activity, the officer now transferred to ferry command waited in Seattle for orders. The couple took a duplex furnished at $125 a month. After about a month they complained to OPA about "Gouging." The dwelling had not been registered; had been occupied at the rate of $125 for months by a Boeing worker. Registration was demanded and on inspection rent was reduced to $55 a month. The landlord refused to refund previous overcharges; the officer received orders to leave within 24 hours on present mission. A phone call went to the landlord notifying him of OPA's intention to take the case into enforcement and thence into court. The landlord agreed to refund at the rate of $210 and handed his departing tenant a check just an hour before flight time. The officer rushed back to the OPA office in gratitude. Finishing touch—the old "one-minute to go play" came when an OPA rent official took the officer to a nearby hotel, furnished identification for him and succeeded in getting the check cashed. The officer caught his plane. His wife remains behind in the duplex at $55 a month.

POULTRY: When will there be more chickens at the meat counters of the nation? Not for two or three months yet . . especially in the larger cities. Farmers will start selling fryers in increased quantities during July, but a large part of these chickens will go to the armed forces to fill urgent demands. In August and September there will be a noticeable improvement in supply. During these months marketings increase seasonally and when military demands can be filled more easily, there will be additional chicken for civilians.

The number of chicks hatched during May was the second highest on record for that month. These chickens will be marketed in September and later. Then the number of eggs set in May was 60 per cent larger than in May a year ago. These eggs will hatch in June and supply the chickens for holiday eating. And it looks now as though farmers will keep on hatching as many chicks as possible because of the firm chicken and egg markets.

Turkey producers are also outstripping their past efforts. Even after large military orders are filled, civilians should be able to eat more turkey this winter than ever before.

SHOES: There will be no special shoe stamps issued between July 15, 1945, and August 1, 1945, as the new stamp will become valid on August 1.

Treating Fence Posts

Nondurable fence posts, such as the lower grades of green pine, can be made relatively durable simply by soaking the basal end in a wooden trough or half a barrel containing a solution of chromated zinc chloride. Steeping the entire post in a tank or soaking both basal and top ends in the solution has also given good protection against termites, fungi, and the destructive organisms that normally attack untreated wood.

9 to 1 Ratio

Undersecretary of the Navy, Artemus L. Gates has revealed that that American airmen are shooting nine Jap planes out of the sky for every one they lose of their own. Although warning that the hardest fighting lies yet ahead he predicted that the Nip air force would soon be destroyed as an "effective weapon." During the first quarter of this year Navy and Marine pilots accounted for 2,800 enemy planes as against 300 of our own. Mr. Gates said that our fleet now has about 100 aircraft carriers. Of these, 27 are first line ships, two are of the 45,000 ton variety and 69 are escort carriers. Last year 26,000 new planes were added to the Navy air force. During the Okinawa campaign, 3,700 Jap planes were blasted out of commission by airmen and anti-aircraft units of the Navy and Marine Corps.

War and Weather

Eta—the secret weather forecasting station that was the nerve center of the entire British meteorological system—was indispensable to victory in Europe. On the strength of its 48-hour weather forecast, Eisenhower postponed D-Day from June 5 to June 6; and the planning of every bombing field on Germany was dependent on its predictions. From the air or the main road Eta looked like a small hill, and its entrance like the dark opening of a cave. Three shacks standing in an open field housed the most important secret inventions of British meteorologists. Balloons and airplanes were used to obtain information about conditions of the upper air. Reports on weather conditions in the northern hemisphere poured in to the center all day and all night. From this information Eta was able to send out 8,000 forecasts a day.

Dogs Help Flush Japs From Caves In Pacific Warfare

"The best way to flush a Jap from a cave is to 'sic' a dog on him," said Lieutenant Allen W. Crankshaw on Okinawa recently when he and his Fourth War Dog Platoon had returned from a most successful mission.

Because there are still plenty Japs to flush, General Douglas McArthur has asked for 1600 more dogs at once. These are to be supplied and trained through the Quartermaster General's office.

Dogs which are most desirable for the scout and messenger services in the Pacific are those which generally conform to the size, color and weights of the German Shepherd (police), farm shepherd, Australian Shepherd, Airedale, Doberman Pinscher, and retrievers.

These dogs should be at least 22 inches at the shoulder, weigh at least 55 pounds, be between one and three-and-half years of age and should not have any large patches of white, which a sniper could see easily.

If you have a dog which you think will qualify, you may contact your local war dog procurement representative of the Quartermaster General, Dogs for Defense, 750 Eddy street, San Francisco, 9, Ordway 8152.

volved in plans for building it.

The fire department's letter:

"With the thought in mind of honoring our war veterans, the Daly City fire department is asking every organization in our city to appoint a committee of two to meet with them on Wednesday evening, August 29 at 8 p. m. in the Council Chambers at the City hall.

"It is the desire of the fire department to form a war memorial committee of all the organizations in this section to consider some worthy monument of honor, respect and appreciation of our armed forces who so bravely protected the honor and principals of our country. Many things have been suggested such as a grove of living trees, a bronze plaque with the names of all service men and a war memorial building. These and many other ideas will be presented at this meeting and every one present will be asked to take part.

"A war memorial building is now being planned for this city by the San Mateo County Planning commission in the amount of $75,000 that will be paid for out of the county tax and if Daly City could raise a like amount a larger building could be erected that would provide a public dance hall where conventions could be held and take care of our other city functions. This is very urgent for the future of our fast growing city.

"Hoping all organizations will take part in this meeting to show their appreciation to our heroes.

We remain,

al committee will probe the schools and libraries (public and law) of the county, as well as to investigate recreational projects and park developments, both completed and proposed.

A civic development committee will investigate post war projects, the county planning commission and shore line and beach developments.

The public morals and delinquency committee will investigate the county juvenile home, and activities of the county probationary officers. This committee will delve thoroughly into conditions surrounding the alleged cruel beatings of a 13 year old negro boy, a county ward, in a north county private home where the lad was placed, an incident reported last week by County Probation Officer John S. Cowgill, as well as other cases of county juvenile wards being placed in unlicensed foster homes.

A legislative committee will be empowered to propose legislation to remedy weaknesses under which county grand juries now operate.

The ninth committee is the press committee, headed by Smallcomb himself, which will keep the newspapers of the county posted on the jury's doings, as soon as its actions can be made public.

San Mateo County Sheriff James J. McGrath and police chiefs of all incorporated communities in San Mateo county have been ordered to appear before the Grand Jury Friday, July 20, at 8 p. m., Foreman Glenn O. Smallcomb announced Monday.

Smallcomb would not indicate why the heads of county law enforcement agencies were summoned before the jury, nor would he say whether they would be questioned by the entire jury or its committee in charge of investigation of gambling activities in the county.

Civilian Building Must Be Deferred Says E. F. Halloran

With military command construction calling for largely increased employment schedules in this area, all but the most essential industrial and other civilian construction will have to be deferred, it was stated today by E. F. Halloran, chairman of War Production Board's Production Urgency committee.

New Army command projects, including the Marin County ammunition loading center, the Oakland port post office and the Suisun-Fairfield airfield expansion are estimated to need over 11,000 construction workers at the September-October peak.

Among other projects, Navy is calling for additional housing at Stockton, Port Chicago, and Moffitt Field, and Army has projected a large expansion of airfield facilities at Sacramento.

"The added strain in this area on manpower and materials for these command programs means that for the time being other construction can be approved only upon a showing of high essentiality and availability of workers and materials for each specific job," said Halloran.

Clean Houses for Pullets

Pullets going in to the laying house should find thoroughly clean quarters waiting for them. Cleaning the laying house should outrank some other farm tasks and also that cleaning several weeks in advance of housing the pullets is desirable.

Local Ambulance Gives Aid In San Bruno Accident

No automobile accidents were reported in Daly City during the past week, but the local ambulance took care of two persons injured in an accident at the intersection of El Camino Real and Jenevein avenue in San Bruno Saturday morning, July 14.

Summoned to the scene by a phone call from the South San Francisco police department at 9:18 a. m., Dean Wood and James Smith found that Crawford Oliver and Mrs. Sadie Oliver of 113 N. Claremont street, San Mateo had received serious injuries in the accident, and removed them to the Community hospital in San Mateo.

Crawford Oliver had received chest injuries and a badly lacerated left hand. Mrs. Oliver sustained an injured back and a cut on back of head.

The ambulance rolled on two other occasions during the past week. Wednesday, July 11 at 11 a. m. Wood and Smith tooled it to a cafe opposite the California Golf Course on El Camino Real in Baden and found Jack Doherty, a 70 year old habitue of the South San Francisco had collapsed in the restaurant. Doherty was removed to Community hospital. The ambulance was summoned by the South San Francisco police department.

Monday afternoon, July 16 at 2:49 Central Emergency hospital requested the ambulance go to 133 McDonald avenue, in Bayshore City and remove Mrs. Mellie Eager from that address to a hospital.

United Air Lines Win First Round For Postwar Route

United Air Lines won the first round of its fight to establish a postwar Pacific air route, Monday of this week, when Associated Press dispatches from Washington, D. C. indicated Civil Aeronautics Board Examiners Thomas L. Wrenn and Lawrence J. Koster recommended that United be authorized to establish schedules between San Francisco and Los Angeles and Honolulu.

At the same time the CAB examiners denied applications by Hawaiian Airlines Ltd., Matson Navigation Co., Northwest Airlines, Inc., Western Air Lines and Ryan School of Aeronautics for permission to establish similar schedules.

Recommendations of the examiners will not become final until approved by the CAB, and reviewed by President Harry L. Truman. Meanwhile officials of Matson Navigation Co. have filed exceptions to the recommendations and it is expected other companies will follow suit.

Present plans of United call for two round trip schedules daily between California and Hawaii with service to both Los Angeles and San Francisco included on each trip. Four engined transport planes will operate on a 10¾ hour schedule between the mainland and Honolulu with a one way fare of $125 and a round trip fare of $225.

Each plane will be equipped so that seats may be converted into sleeping berths, the 50 seats making 24 berths.

Before the war this route was served only by Pan-American Airways. This company has been under contract to the Navy throughout the war, and has so far made no announced plans for post-war service.

Longshoremen Win Close Contest With Moffat Mantecas

Longshoremen and Moffat Mantecas staged a hot game at Marchbanks park Sunday afternoon, the Longshoremen winning 5 to 4 as Pancho Galarza slid across the plate in the last half of the ninth inning, with the winning run.

"Lefty" Brennan, Manteca pitcher filled the bases with no outs in this frame and Mike Dalton hit an infield grounder. Off with the crack of the bat, the speedy Longshoreman right fielder slid over the plate inches ahead of the toss to the plate.

Jack Rial, youthful Longshoreman pitcher, hurled a steady game for the winners, giving out five well-scattered hits, as he struck out six and walked one. All the Moffat runs were unearned, Manager Harry Maloney dropping a fly in the first inning that permitted one to score, the others scoring on three Longshoremen errors in the 6th.

Maloney and Eddie Rose connected for two hits each for the winners. "Lefty" Fieber boomed a single against the right field wall for the hardest hit of the day, while Dalton, Rial and Catcher Kenny Houghton all weighed in with one single each.

Sunday, July 22, the Longshoremen travel to Camp Parks for a game with the service team there. Wayne Kistler, former New York Giant is expected to work on the mound for Camp Parks with Gene McIsaacs, former Seal catcher, who manages the team, behind the plate. Rial and Houghton will form the Longshoreman battery, Manager Harry Maloney announced this week.

Marines Massacre Mare Island Mates 17-1 Wednesday

San Francisco U. S. Marines started another winning streak at Mare Island Wednesday when they massacred the Mare Island Marines 17 to 1. Staff Sergeant Hampton Conn set the Mare Islanders down with two hits one a home run by Catcher McKenzie for the home team's only score.

Meanwhile the San Francisco lads started off with four runs in the first inning, with Sgt. Wally Kremers, hard-hitting catcher, poling a home run with two mates aboard. The S. F. lads added six more scores in the second, two in the third, one in the fifth, three in the seventh, and one in the ninth. All told they secured 19 hits off two Mare Island pitchers.

Sunday, the S. F. Marines travel to San Quentin for a game with the Prison All-Stars, and Wednesday, July 25, return to Marchbanks park for their final league game with Mare Island Navy. This contest will get underway at 2 p. m.

S. F. to Discourage Outside Attenders At City Hi Schools

Attendance of students from outside the city at San Francisco high schools may be discouraged in the future, if action of the San Francisco Board of Education taken at a meeting Tuesday night of this week, serves as a guide toward the board's future rulings.

This week the board ruled that all incoming ninth graders at Abraham Lincoln high school must live within the designated area in which the Sunset District school is located. At that time, it was believed this was the first of a series of similar rulings affecting all high schools in San Francisco.

This action was taken by the board in an effort to alleviate crowded conditions in San Francisco schools.

Salt Checks Fires

Common salt is still a favorite remedy for checking chimney fires. It is thrown on the fire in stove or furnace to smother the chimney blaze. Less soot will gather in pipes and chimney if dry fuel is used and fires are not checked too closely at night.

Only One Game Slated at Park For Sunday Fans

There will only be one baseball game at Marchbanks park Sunday, this one between Young Christian Workers and Western Pipe and Steel of the Baseball Managers' Summer league and slated to start at 2:30.

Both Longshoremen and U. S. Marines, other home teams at Marchbanks park, are traveling Sunday, the former going to Camp Parks and the latter to San Quentin.

Because of the Old-Timers doubleheader at Seals stadium, no other teams could be secured for a game here, so Al Erle finally decided to make the day's schedule a single game giving the two Summer League clubs the 2:30 hour, rather than their usual noon starting time.

This will be the first game of the second half of the Summer League. In the first half game between the two clubs, YCW scored two runs in each of the seventh and eighth innings to take a 5 to 3 decision after Western Pipe and Steel had scored three runs in the first inning. Both teams have strengthened their lineups greatly in preparation for the second half race.

The Oldtimers' doubleheader at Seals stadium features a 1:15 game between Owl Drugs and Moffat Mantecas followed by a contest between former diamond greats from both sides of the bay. The East Bay nine will be managed by Amby the Tailor and will include among others Carroll Yerkes, Art Bradbury, Leroy Anton, Bill Hollander and Bernie Deviverous. The West Bay crew piloted by Neal Kenneally will include Gene Valla, Otto Olsen, Specs Shea and Babe Pierotti.

County Property Taxes Hit $40.70 For Each $1,000 Val.

Local property tax levies in San Mateo county averaged $40.70 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation for 1944-45, the last completed fiscal year, California Taxpayers' association said today, making public its analysis of the property tax bill in California counties.

For 1943-44, local property tax levies in the county averaged $37,40 per $1,000 of valuation; for 1942-43, they averaged $36.50 per $1,000. County, city, school, and special district levies are included.

The county is one of 25 in California in which property taxes levied averaged between $30 and $40 per $1,000 of assessed value in 1944-45. Four California counties had levies which ranged between $10 and $20 per $1,000 of value; 19 levied between $20 and $30 per $1,000; 25 were in the $30 and $40 per $1,000 range; nine levied between $40 and $50; in only one was the levy more than $50 per $1,000 valuation.

Over the state as a whole, the local property tax levy per $1,000 of assessed value averaged $40.90 for 1944-45, compared with $39.70 for 1943-44 and $41.10 for 1942-43.

"Preliminary budget figures throughout the state indicate a considerable increase in local property taxes for 1945-46, unless action is taken to reduce local spending programs," the Taxpayers' association declared. "Public hearings on the county budget must be held by August 10, but may be held long before. School budget public hearings are held during the first week of August.

"Taxpayers should let their local governing boards know their ideas on public spending programs, before it is too late."

Bonneville Dam Project

Bonneville dam controls the water of the Columbia river for generation of power and improvement of navigation facilities. The highest single-lift lock in the world permits ocean-going vessels to travel upstream as far as The Dalles, Ore., 187 miles from the Pacific ocean. The army engineers, who constructed and operate Bonneville dam, also made provisions to perpetuate the Columbia river's famous salmon runs. Scientifically designed fish ladders provide easy passage over the dam to spawning grounds on the upper river and its tributaries.

Released by U. S. War Department, Bureau of Public Relations.

FOOTBRIDGE OVER THE ROER—At narrow places on this German river some American soldiers passed over the swirling torrent on sagging bridges while their comrades elsewhere crossed in assault boats. All gained their objectives.

MRS. AMERICA MEETS THE WAR...

After August 1, Mrs. America will have another shoe stamp for each member of her family. Airplane Stamp No. 4 in War Ration Book No. 3 will become good on that date. Airplane Stamps 1, 2 and 3 are good indefinitely. The last stamp No. 3, was validated on November 1, 1944. The length of time between validation dates depends on the supply of shoes available. Leather supplies are still extremely critical, and it behooves each and every one of us to take good care of the shoes we have and make them last as long as possible. You'll be interested to know, too, that shoe manufacturers are being permitted to use leather welts and insoles in men's and children's non-rationed shoes to strengthen them and give them longer life.

Since supplies are sufficient to satisfy demand at prices below ceiling levels, price controls on cabbage, cucumbers, eggplant and sweet peppers have been suspended during the months of peak production. Ceiling prices on eggplant and sweet peppers will not be resumed until January, 1946; price ceilings on cabbage are suspended until October, and price ceilings on cucumbers will be suspended during August and September. Price control on snap beans has also been suspended until October, but spinach will keep its ceiling prices, made necessary by production prospects.

If you've recently been shopping for cotton garments for yourself or your family you've probably noticed better supplies of lower-priced shirts, shorts, slips and house dresses are available in the stores now. These are a result of the WPB-OPA clothing program to channel available supplies of cotton into lower-priced lines. And you should also remember that many of these cotton garments are pre-ticketed, so Mrs. America can easily see the ceiling price. Supplies of cotton goods won't be greater, but what is available will be reasonably priced.

Speaking of lower prices, if there are any cigar smokers in your family, they'll welcome the news that OPA is taking steps to put low-priced cigars back on the counter. Some manufacturers have been concentrating their production on their higher-priced cigars, violating government regulations which were designed to restore output of lower-priced brands to same ration to higher priced brands to same ratio to higher priced brands as existed in more normal times. However, enforcement actions have been taken against these firms. The OPA is asking that they be restrained from making future price violations.

In a nut shell, here's the realistic, factual analysis of a tight sugar supply that gives no indication of easing during the next six months. A Cuban drought, Philippine and Java crops destroyed or in Japanese hands, heavy military requirements, need of ships to transport troops to Pacific theater, and manpower shortages in beet fields and refineries. And, did you know that two-thirds of United States supply of sugar was always imported?

With peach and other fruit crops ideal for home canning now reaching markets, the sugar shortage is emphasized. There's only one fundamental way for Mrs. America to make her contribution. She must share her sugar with other home canners and small businessmen by applying for actual needs only, and return to local boards any sugar certificates she now finds she will not use for canning. That returned allotment can then be re-issued to other canners who have not obtained their share.

Car owners using their automobiles for a bona fide change of residence for which they were issued special gasoline rations are now eligible for Grade I passenger tire purchase certificates. An increasing number of persons are moving from one city to another, and this new provision will provide for new tires if they have a tire failure while making a permanent change of residence. Persons eligible are: (1) war workers moving from one city to another as production shifts from one type of war goods to another and to civilian commodities: (2) members of the armed forces moving to a new post, and (3) discharged veterans returning home or moving to another city to accept a job.

Superior Judges Receive a $2,000 Salary Increase

Increases in salaries from $8500 to $10,500 annually for San Mateo county's two superior judges, Maxwell McNutt and Aylett R. Cotton, are now official, Governor Earl Warren Monday of this week signing the bill authored by Senator Jack Tenney of Los Angeles and passed by the legislature at one of its last sessions recently.

The San Mateo county board of supervisors approved the raise May 5, and the county grand jury also gave it its "blessing" just after its recent impanelment. Half of the $2000 raise will come from county funds.

Virginia Adams Is Bride of E. Koller

Miss Virginia Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Adams, 172 Templeton avenue became the bride of Seaman 1/C Edward Koeller, U. S. Navy at a double ring ceremony Tuesday, July 10. Scene of the wedding was Community Methodist church, Geneva avenue and Vienna street, San Francisco.

The bride wore a white brocade gown and finger tip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia.

Attending her were Mrs. Helen Kohman and Miss Lillybell Fletcher, who were gowned in light blue satin and net and carried cascade bouquets of pink tuberous begonias.

Best man for his nephew was Fred Edwards.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents.

As Old As South

Tobacco manufacture, in one form or another, is as old as the South.

Grand Jury Wants Income Tax Records Of County Officials

Although James G. Smyth, collector of internal revenue for Northern California, has flatly stated that income tax records are not available to grand juries, under United States government regulations, the San Mateo county grand jury has indicated that it will ask the Bureau of Internal Revenue for information regarding amount of income taxes paid by county officials, and purported gambling "big shots" in its present investigation of gambling conditions in the county.

Meanwhile the jury has indicated it will establish precedent in that it will keep progress of its investigation secret even from county officials.

United States armed forces have reportedly entered into the picture. During the past weekend a Navy Shore patrol entered a Redwood City establishment and demanded the proprietor turn over to them several slot machines reportedly in his possession. When he refused, members of the patrol threatened to confiscate any "slot machines we ever find in your place," it was reported.

German Wood Bullets

Wooden bullets, which the Germans are said to have used at Cherbourg when hard pressed for ammunition, and which they presumably might use again, are practically invisible in X-ray pictures of the wounds they make, Dr. Norman P. Henderson reports in the British Medical Journal. The wooden bullets, said to be effective up to about 100 yards, break on solid structures such as bone, and the scattered fragments are not likely to be located by X-rays.

Chinese Odd Customs

In all Chinese drinking games, the loser instead of the winner drinks. A wolf is the emblem of cupidity and rapacity—just as on Broadway. Chinese shake their own hands when greeting each other.

Peterson Denies Use of County Car To John Fickeisen

County Executive Frederick Peterson and the county department of public health and welfare headed by Dr. Charles C. Gans are feuding again.

Cause of the most recent flareup is Peterson's order this week denying further use of a county-owned car to chief county sanitary inspector John W. Fickeisen, and orders to Gans that he be placed on a mileage basis to use his own car.

Following an auto accident on June 21, the sixth Fickeisen has been involved in during the past two years, the insurance company handling the insurance of county cars wrote Peterson a letter in which they said "we note with apprehension the report of another accident by Fickeisen. It is indeed a very bad situation when there is such a frequency of accidents by one individual."

Fickeisen vigorously protested Peterson's action, saying "I can call the attention of the insurance adjusters to incidents where other county officials have suffered accidents that amounted to greater expenses than any of mine, and these did not seem to call for a denial of further use of county-owned automobiles. I can cite one serious accident in which a county-owned car was damaged while in unofficial use outside the county."

Fickeisen is now on a 30-day leave of absence without salary, seeking to secure a car of his own.

Metal That Never Tires

As a substitute for war-scarce tin, beryllium with copper and with other metals forms hard, extremely strong alloys for tools and dies. Because it gives off no sparks, it makes good safety tools and surfaces for workers in factories handling explosives. Outstanding is beryllium's use in aircraft instruments. A combination of 2 per cent beryllium and 98 per cent copper in precision springs has the virtue of not weakening, no matter how often the springs may be stretched. Hence beryllium's reputation as "the metal that never tires."

"OFF THE BLOTTER"

Local police officers had more than the usual quota of drunks and family arguments to handle the past week—in addition to an early morning prowler, a stolen automobile, (recovered), a nickle throwing merchant seaman, and one lost ration book—little else.

Howard Phillips of 71 Castle street called the police at 2:30 a. m., Sunday, July 15, reporting a prowler around his home. When Officers Roland Petrocchi and August Benassini responded, Phillips told them the prowler had tried to open a rear door. The officers searched the vicinity without finding any trace of the predawn marauder.

Mrs. Horace Fellows of 163 Vista Grande avenue, phoned the department Sunday, July 15 at 2:15 p. m. reporting her automobile had been stolen from in front of 6556 Mission street and was being driven south on Mission street. The car was recovered at the Motorville Auto Court.

Thursday night, July 12 at 8:15, Officer Dean Wood responding to a phone call from the Jefferson Union High school swimming pool found a 17-year-old merchant seaman had been annoying instructors and swimmers by throwing nickles at them.

The lad was brought to the station, reprimanded and sent home, when he reported he was slated to ship out the next day.

Thursday, July 12, at 2:50 p. m. Mrs. Lorraine McGinnis, 325 Santa Barbara avenue, reported a ration book number four issued to Phyllis Lindsey of that address had been lost.

Judge Levies Heavy Fines At Court Session

Traffic fines at city court were few, but heavy, Friday, July 13. The following paid for traffic violations: Anthony Gresh, $10, speeding; Mathew Welter, $4 for overnight parking; Benjamin Dance, $1.50, arterial stop; Charles Bricker jr., $1.50, arterial stop; H. Paoli, $2.50, parking in a prohibited place.

For failure to stop and give his name and address after sideswiping a car, William Paul Coyle, 6843 Mission street, paid $25.

Mabel P. Barton, 121½ Shotwell street, San Francisco paid $50 for drunk driving.

Anton Kentra, 222 Los Olivos avenue, paid $35 for being drunk in a public place and disturbing the peace.

Five dollars was forfeited in lieu of appearance by Thomas Rich Autagne, 3810 Mission street, San Francisco on charges of being drunk in a public place.
